History

Every inch of Harrowden Hall is packed full of rich history. From a stately home with ties to Georgian and Tudor royalty, turned girls boarding school for the Princess of Hawaii, to becoming one of Northamptonshire's most prestigious golf courses with a jaw-dropping clubhouse.

The Vauxes of Great Harrowden, a family of Catholic aristocrats with strong royal connections, owned the grounds both before and after the current building was developed in 1719. The family still holds a special place in the heart of the Hall, with its main events room and dining hall being named the Vaux Room, and their privately owned Chapel still remains in all its glory within the stunning Secret Garden.

Some of its most famous visitors include King Charles I, Henry VIII and more recently Princess Kaiulani of Hawaii. What better place to tie the knot than such a historic venue?
